Among the listed “Bellwether” market zones, Philadelphia, PA lead with +13.1% YTD revenue growth while unique patient growth was at +5.6%. St. Louis, MO was notable among the laggard zones, finishing at (-3.3%) revenue growth and (-4.9%) growth in unique patients vs PYTD.

Following more current trends, the national 3-week rolling average for practice revenue growth was up at +2.0%. Seven of the nine Census Divisions posted positive revenue growth for the current rolling 3-week average. The rolling 3-week average revenue growth index is designed to provide a more immediate view of growth trends (e.g., market velocity). A positive value indicates rolling revenue growth vs the prior year reported 3-week period.

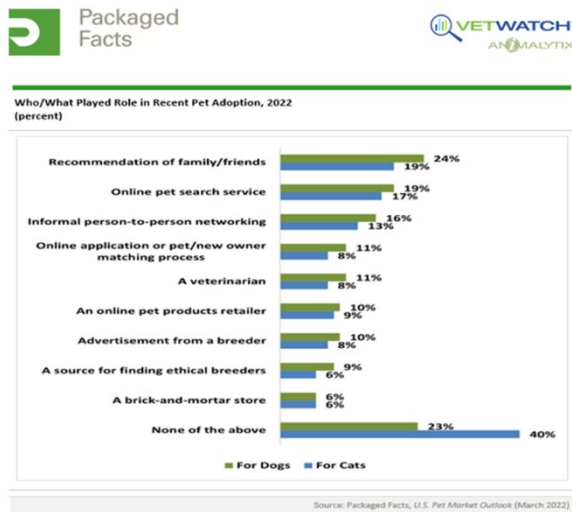

Veterinarian and Pet Owner Sentiments

Weekly insights as reported by veterinarians and pet owners sourced from M/A/R/C Research, Cleveland research Company, and Packaged Facts.

Packaged Facts reports on a variety of topics that impact pets and the veterinary industry from their U.S. Pet Market Outlook (March 2022) report, based on Fall 2021 MRI-Simmons National Consumer Studies.

Vets and Pet Adoption

Packaged Facts survey data show that vets are middle-of-the-pack in terms of who or what play a role in pet acquisition, with vets involved with only 11% of recent dog adoptions and 8% of recent cat adoptions. As influencers, vets therefore trail family/friends (at 24% of dog owners and 19% of cat owners) and informal person-to-person networking (at 16% and 13%, respectively), as well as online pet search services (at 19% and 17%).
